

Boughton Monchelsea Parish Council

STANDING ORDERS

1. RULES OF DEBATE AT MEETINGS

- a Matters on the agenda shall be considered in the order in which they appear unless the order is changed at the discretion of the chairman of the meeting.
- b A matter on the agenda that is not proposed by its proposer may be treated by the chairman of the meeting as withdrawn, but may be proposed by another councillor.
- c A matter shall be described in enough detail in the agenda to allow an elector to decide whether to attend the meeting at which it will be debated.
- d The agenda for the immediately forthcoming meeting shall be advertised in accordance with standing order 15bi.
- e No matter shall be discussed at a meeting unless it is on the agenda or is an urgent matter.
- f An urgent matter is one that a councillor introduces as such at the beginning of the meeting as requiring discussion or decision before the next appropriate meeting and which is accepted as such by the meeting.
- g All councillors may speak on a matter subject to any necessary dispensation.
- h The chairman shall allow debate at the meeting on each matter until, in the chairman's discretion, the matter has been sufficiently ventilated, whereupon the proposer or another councillor shall frame a resolution upon which the meeting can vote.
- i The chairman shall call for a seconder to the resolution. Any councillor may second a resolution except for the proposer.
- j A resolution that is not seconded shall be treated as having been defeated.
- k As soon as a resolution has been seconded the chairman shall put it to a vote.
- l During the debate of a matter, a councillor may interrupt only on a point of order and the councillor who was interrupted shall stop speaking. A councillor raising a point of order shall identify the standing order which he considers has been breached or specify the other irregularity in the proceedings of the meeting he is concerned by.
- m A point of order shall be decided by the chairman of the meeting and his decision shall be final.
- n When a matter is under debate, no other matter shall be proposed except:
 - i. to amend the matter;
 - ii. to proceed to the next business
 - iii. to adjourn the debate;
 - iv. to put the matter to a vote;
 - v. to ask a person to be no longer heard or to leave the meeting;
 - vi. to refer a matter to a committee or group for consideration;
 - vii. to exclude the public and press;
 - viii. to adjourn the meeting; or

- ix. to suspend particular standing order(s) excepting those which reflect mandatory statutory requirements.
- o A matter proposed under standing order 1(n) above shall be put to a vote immediately it is proposed and seconded.

2. DISORDERLY CONDUCT AT MEETINGS

- a No person shall obstruct the transaction of business at a meeting or behave offensively or improperly. If this standing order is ignored, the chairman of the meeting shall request such person(s) to moderate or improve their conduct.
- b If person(s) disregard the request of the chairman of the meeting to moderate or improve their conduct, any councillor or the chairman of the meeting may move that the person be no longer heard or be excluded from the meeting. The motion, if seconded, shall be put to the vote without discussion.
- c If a resolution made under standing order 2(b) is ignored, the chairman of the meeting may take further reasonable steps to restore order or to progress the meeting. This may include temporarily suspending or closing the meeting.
