

SCENIC GREEN TRAIL

Hello!

Welcome to your exclusive guide to walking the Scenic Green Trail, my new long distance path around the Borough of Maidstone.

My trail uses the existing public footpath network and short sections of road to link important nature reserves, green spaces and historic villages together.

As the trail weaves through the landscape, you can enjoy incredible views and a wide variety of habitats from ancient woodland, open farmland, grassland meadows, orchards, to streams, rivers and lakes. It also passes through some areas of housing and through villages packed full of historic architecture and interest.

The route covers a long distance and cannot be walked in a single day, so I have broken it down into seven sections of similar length. I have carefully created this guide with your needs in mind, so you will find contact details of accommodation, pubs and shops on the route, suggestions of good places to stop and rest and useful historical information.

I have also included details of bus services and railway stations, part of the extensive public transport network that Maidstone offers.

It is very important to remember that public footpaths cross over private land; without supportive landowners, this trail couldn't work. Always show respect and don't deviate from the path. No littering, dog waste, barbecues, fires or wild camps anywhere please.

Some short sections of pathway will get muddy during the winter months of course, so I would recommend that mid-March until the end of October is the best time to walk the route.

Please enjoy the trail, discover new places and support local businesses along the way. On the back cover you will find out how my project came about and the people who have given their time and advice to make it happen.

Have a great walk and make lasting memories!

Phil Riches

Hello, I'm Phil Riches, a Maidstone resident with a keen eye for improving the environment in my home town.

I got really inspired when another local resident devised an amazing plan to turn a neglected ancient woodland close by into a thriving community woodland. After much hard work, it now represents a significant and long-lasting achievement for the area. This gave me the belief that it was actually possible for anyone to change the course of things for the better, to benefit both people and the environment.

I met a number of like-minded people through that project and realised that being outside in nature was having a real benefit to my health. Soon afterwards, I began exploring the local countryside using the public footpath network.

I remember thinking to myself; wouldn't it be better to access other green spaces around the town without walking on busy roads? I studied maps in detail and realised that many of my other favourite country parks and villages around the Maidstone area could be connected by an innovative new route that used somewhat forgotten public footpaths. I set to work, thought up the name and used my graphic design experience to create the logo and branding. It was soon afterwards that I met some visionary people on the Parish Council Environment Network, who loved my idea. Caroline Jessel, Mike Summersgill and Eileen Lewis provided the help needed to get the project taken seriously by local authorities, with Derek Eagle stepping up to become Project Leader.

Scenic Green Trail represents my personal legacy, something new and positive that I have contributed to Maidstone which provides so many benefits to the environment, communities and businesses both for now and in the future.
